

Preface

These proceedings contain the papers of the Second International Workshop on Recent Trends in News Information Retrieval (NewsIR'18) held in conjunction with the ECIR 2018 conference in Grenoble, France, on the 26th of March 2018. Seven full papers and five short papers were selected by the programme committee from a total of 19 submissions. Each submitted paper was reviewed by at least three members of an international programme committee. In addition to the selected papers, the workshop features two keynote speeches. Keynote speeches are given by Edgar Meij “AI & Automated News: Implications on Trust, Bias, and Credibility”, and Peter Tolmie “Every tool is better than nothing?: The use of dashboards in journalistic work”. We would like to thank ECIR for hosting us. Thanks also go to the keynote speakers, the program committee, the paper authors, and the participants, for without these people there would be no workshop.
