About the workshop series

The UK Workshop series on Case-Based Reasoning (UKCBR) is an annual occasion where one can meet CBR colleagues and exchange news, views and opinions as well as presenting and learning about the work of other researchers and practitioners in the field. As in the last few years, UKCBR 2011 was held again at Peterhouse College in Cambridge, jointly with the 31st International Conference on Artificial Intelligence and its application (AI 2011), organised by BCS Specialist Group on Artificial Intelligence (SGAI). You can find out more about the workshop series here: http://ukcbr.org.uk.

Programme Committee

Kerstin Bach	University of Hildesheim, Germany
Derek Bridge	University College Cork, Ireland
Amélie Cordier	LIRIS, France
Susan Craw	The Robert Gordon University, Scotland
Sarah Jane Delaney	Dublin Institute of Technology, Ireland
Jixin Ma	University of Greenwich, England
David McSherry	University of Ulster, N. Ireland
Miltos Petridis	University of Brighton, England
Thomas Roth-Berghofer	University of West London, England
Nirmalie Wiratunga	The Robert Gordon University, Scotland

Workshop Chairs

Miltos Petridis, Thomas Roth-Berghofer, Nirmalie Wiratunga

Workshop Organiser

Miltos Petridis